*Day Trader Rule Mean? Only
Here For The Beer*

This phrase originated in I'm (also We're and They're) only here for the beer. It's Double Diamond , which was the slogan of an advertising campaign for Double Diamond, an English pale ale. All the advertisements using that slogan that I have found were published in the Daily Mirror (London, England) from 1 st November 1969 to 11 th September 1971.

has CAMRA achieved in its lifetime, and what does the future hold? Success or Failure? CAMRA - the Campaign for Real Ale - was founded in 1971, and in the first ten years of its existence it succeeded in making the major breweries do an abrupt U-turn of policy, and won the accolade of "the most successful consumer movement in Europe".

Free beer finishing up the kegs meant that there was no shortage of people to clear up. Check current legal and local requirements. Not everyone knows about the legal requirement for a paper bag for your glass: one of the two police officers who checked us out during the festival came back later, bought a glass, and crossed the road to his patrol car without a paper bag.
